On March 12th, 2020, we opened Lunenburg to a sold-out crowd, and we were well on our way to enjoying a 30 show run of Norm Foster's brilliant new play: Lunenburg. Eight shows later we had to turn down the lights and our theatre became dark. We are bringing the lights back up on Norm Foster's comedy Lunenburg and we could not be happier or more excited; 'cause there is "No Business Like Show Business!" Our goal in offering our Socially Distanced Senior's Social consists of two things: first and foremost keeping you all safe in our space and secondly; to bring you all much needed joy and laughter.

Due to continued restrictions we have implemented changes to ensure our productions can all be presented within Alberta Health Service (AHS) guidelines and Canadian Actors Equity Association (CAEA) guidelines while still maintaining our commitment to deliver an exceptional dinner theatre experience. The new Table Floor Plan will keep the 2 meter social distance needed between actors and tables which will allow us a 78 person maximum with a cap of 6 people per table. We will be requiring that our patrons wear masks entering and leaving the theatre and moving in the space such as going to the bathroom. Because of our limited seating space we are encouraging people that will be attending to invite friends and family in their Cohorts to join them for an afternoon or evening with Cow Patti to best fill the tables to use the space as proficient as possible. On our website, www.cowpatti.com, you will find more detailed guidelines on how we plan to keep you safe.

LUNENBURG

Lunenburg has all the laughs of Foster's best! American widow Iris Oulette and her good friend Natalie travel up to the coastal village of Lunenburg Nova Scotia to a house she inherited from her recently deceased husband. The only problem is Iris didn't know anything about her Canadian Abode! As next-door neighbor, handy man Charlie brings the gals up to speed, be prepared to laugh and gasp at the twists and turns in this newest Maritime comedy by Norm Foster. A fall down funny, romantic adventure that will envelope you in its Maritime warmth.
